U.S. President-elect Barack Obama has the alien vote in his pocket.

According to Michael C. Luckman, director of the New York Center for Extraterrestrial Research, UFOs were seen and photographed at several rallies attended by Obama in the final days of his triumphant campaign:

-- A classic flying saucer flew over Obama at a rally on November 1 in Pueblo, Colorado and was clearly seen by thousands of supporters in the crowd and millions of viewers on Chris Matthews's popular TV show, "Hardball," on MSNBC.

-- A formation of UFOs were photographed by a local TV station flying above the stage at a Bruce Springsteen concert in Philadelphia on October 4 in support of Obama. The unknown objects were spotted directly above the spot where Obama himself earlier had been standing.

-- Scores of orbs, which are round balls of light associated with the UFO phenomenon as well as spirits, were photographed by a woman attending an Obama victory rally in Grant Park in Chicago on November 11.

"It is possible that the aliens were sending Obama greetings at these events," said Luckman. "My advice to Obama is to watch the skies. Extraterrestrials may actually follow Barack around during these unusually difficult times and force him to disclose the truth about UFO visitation to Earth."

Former Clinton White House Chief of Staff John Podesta, who is chief of Obama's transition team, has called on the government to open its secret UFO files. "The American people, quite frankly, can handle the truth," Podesta said.

Clinton and his wife, Hillary, who ran against Obama in the Democratic primary, were both once briefed on the nation's UFO secrets by Laurance Rockefeller, the billionaire philanthropist who tried to orchestrate a deal with the Clinton White House to reveal all of the facts of the Roswell UFO crash in New Mexico," said Luckman. That incident allegedly involved the recovery of a flying saucer with four alien astronauts by the U.S. military in 1947

Great Britain, France, Brazil, Chile, Bolivia and Peru have recently all begun to open up their official UFO files and other nations are expected to follow suit. Luckman is offering to meet with Obama at the White House to brief him on the UFO issue. The UFO leader said that he is in possession of "the ultimate evidence" that UFOs are visiting Earth:

-- Two hundred videotaped depositions by former military men and intelligence officers stating that they are prepared to testify before the United States Congress about the Cosmic Watergate, including the Roswell crash.

-- Official NASA videotapes showing a huge number of UFOs operating above the Earth that were photographed by astronauts aboard the various Space Shuttle missions.

-- Photographs of a surprising number of UFOs flying over restricted airspace in Washington, D.C., the nation's capitol. UFOs were sighted recently near Crawford, Texas, where President George W. Bush's ranch, also known as the Western White House, is located.
